NOT YET, BUT SOON.

Last year we put off getting wood,
And getting winter clothes,
Until a Norther curled us up
And we were nearly froze;
And we swore this year we would be
In time—would not forget—
And would buy such things early—but
We have not bought them yet.

Morris Henry in Courier-Journal.

"I do not know," said Edmund Burke, "the method of drawing up an indictment against a whole people." Neither does The Courier-Journal. The result of Tuesday's election shows conclusively that a great majority of the people of the controlling section of the Union are well content with things as they are; that it is better to endure the conceded shortcomings of the party in power than embark upon an unknown sea of continuous agitation; that Bryan meant this whilst Taft meant rest; in short, that a Dollar, though tainted in hand, is worth a bush of full patriotic abstractions.

The will of Judge James Hargis was probated Wednesday in the Breathitt County Court. The will is dated June 5th, 1906, and by its provisions bequeaths all of the property of Judge Hargis of every kind to his widow.

Judge A. M. J. Cochran will convene Federal Court at Richmond, Monday. Among those indicted are J. R. Ball, distiller, of Middleboro, Ky., five counts, alleged removing of spirits from the plant without having paid the tax. A similar case is that of William Hartsock, indicted on four counts. Besides that there are 23 cases of illicit distilling of liquor without a license.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

There was an adjourned meeting of Council last evening for the purpose of hearing Committee reports and taking action on Sidewalk Ordinances.

A Sidewalk Ordinance relative to the construction of pavements in Fourth street, North side, from East margin of Plum to City limits, received its second reading, and upon motion was adopted.

The Committee appointed to confer with Godfrey Hunsicker in regard to ground for the putting down of a concrete pavement in front of his Second street property, Fifth Ward, reported that they were unable to come to an agreement. The report was received.

The City Attorney was instructed to make a thorough investigation as to the ownership of a plat of ground, said to have been set aside as a City Park, but now claimed as part and parcel of the Hunsicker lot facing on Union and Third streets, and directly opposite the City Park on the West side of Union street, and report his findings at the next meeting of Council.

The petition of Sixth Ward citizens for sidewalks was deferred until next meeting of Council, at which time the City Attorney will be enabled to enlighten Council as to its rights, if any, in the ground now claimed by Mr. Hunsicker.

Council instructed the Laws and Ordinances Committee to bring in an ordinance looking towards the construction of all sidewalks in the city that required improvement. Also, special Paving Committee to have the City Engineer to plat streets and have widths and grades established.
